

Dayton
Dance
Conservatory
Ensemble

2016-2017 Auditions

We will be holding auditions for our performance ensemble, Dayton Dance Conservatory Ensemble (DDCE), Saturday, July 30, 2016. DDCE is an elite performance program designed for flourishing young dancers who are dedicated to furthering their commitment to their dance training and education. Ensemble members are required to dedicate themselves to train weekly in 2-3 Ballet classes, Modern, Jazz, Tap and Ballet/Ensemble Rehearsals. Throughout the year, ensemble members will perform at local events, concerts, workshops and competitions; providing members with ample opportunities to gain valuable performance experience.

DDCE is committed to encouraging aspiring young dancers to reach their fullest potential by fostering growth and creativity in a challenging, fun-filled, positive environment. DDCE will strive to set strong examples of leadership and responsibility to impact not only the performing arts, but also the larger community outside of the performing arts.

The audition fee is $20 per dancer and will be broken down into 3-4 segments: Contemporary and/or Jazz, Hip Hop & Tap. The auditions will be broken down into three levels:

- Level I (Age 7-9): 11:00am – 12:30pm
- Level II (Age 10-12): 12:45pm – 2:45pm
- Level III (age 13 & up): 3:00pm – 5:00pm.

To audition for DDCE, please complete and submit an application form available on our website, www.daytondanceconservatory.com by Friday, July 29. Please contact the studio at (937) 236-6011 with any questions.

